

South Coast Run

On a rather cloudy Sunday morning 15 cars met at Probus layby for the South coast experience. A few brave/mad members left with their tops down, as we set off towards Tresillian. From where pretty back lanes took us towards St Mawes via St Michael Penkevill, Lamorran Woods and over set bridge. On the drive into St Mawes we could just see Pendennis Castle through the fog.

After a quick coffee stop at St Anthony's Head, more of us braved the weather and became topless for the journey onwards to Portscatho, Veryan, Carne Beach, Portholland and Caerhays before we adventured into Mevagissey!!!! Luckily no traffic problems, just more wonderful views of the sea and the Cornish hedgerows lead us to Charlestown and lunch at The Pier House.

Our thanks to Alan and Sandra for showing us some of the best bits of The Roseland and the South coast.

Further thanks to Sharon Luxton and Dave Buckley for the photos.
